EMBER ELECTIONS. NEW-100 CLOSE-BUTLER BEATEN.

MOHT RACE ON SECRETARY OF STATE IN NEW-YORK -FIFTEEN THOUSAND MAJORITY AGAINST BUT-LER IN MASSACHUSETTS-THE VIRGINIA BOUR-BONS CLAIMING MAHONE'S DEFEAT.

The November elections show varying results in the different States. In New-York the Democratic State ticket, with the exception of Maypard, the candidate for Secretary of State, is apparently elected. Maynard runs much behind his ticket in the cities, and the race between him and Carr is close. The Republicans elect a large majority of the Senate, which will take part in the election of a successor to Senator Lapham, and have, apparently, a majority in the Assembly.

Butler is defeated in Massachusetts by a majority estimated at 15,000. The election was attended with intense excitement, and the vote was very heavy. The Legislature will be strongly Republican.

The election in Virginia was quiet, and the Bourbons assert Mahone's defeat, claiming a popular majority of 15,000, Abbett (Dem.) is doubtless elected Governor in New-Jersey. Returns from Pennsylvania are meagre, but they show that the Republicans have won by a good majority. The legislative and local elections in Connecticut give Republican gains.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BUTLER BURIED OUT OF SIGHT.

A REPUBLICAN MAJORITY OF FROM FIFTEEN TO TWENTY THOUSAND.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] BOSTON, Nov. 6.—Massachusətts is redeemed, and Butlerism is rebuked. The old man insolent has been buried beneath a majority of from 15,000 to 20,000 votes. Last year, after many failures, Butler was chosen Governor of Massachusetts by a little less than 12,000 majority over Bishop, Republican, and Almy, Prohibitiouist.

The weather was warm and pleasant throughout the state, and was eminently favorable to a large Republican vote. Never before was so large a vote cast in this State even at a Presidential election, It was probably as high as 300,000, Last year the total vote was 250,278. usual interest was manifested to-night to get the news, and crowds of at least 50,000 people gathered around the newspaper offices, where the returns for a few hours were thrown out by stereopticons. The Legislature and the Executive Council will be largely Republican.

A CAUSE FOR PROFOUND THANKSGIVING [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Boston, Nov. 6 .- The Journal editorially says of the result: "What Appointation was to the Confederacy the election yesterday was to Butler and Butlerism. Both the man and the thing have been annihilated. They will never know a resurrection. For such a result the decent people, not only of Massachusetts but of both parties throughout the country, should be profoundly thankful, because the one in this country who could rally about him the ignorant and the vicious elements has been east down for the last time. As for the decent and intelligent people of Massachusetts, they have reason to exult in the fact that the traducer of this noble Commonwealth has been rebuked, silenced and overthrown. Massachusetts people can again go abroad and declare in the words of Webster, 'Massachusetts, there she stands; behold her.' Again she stands erect and takes her place as the leader of States. In the everthrow of this man, Massachusetts has silenced those who have mocked at her in the hour of her

"The victory is that of decency over indecency; of intelligence over ignorance; of popular government over the one-man power, and a system that will hereafter be stigmatized Butlerism. It is a victory, not of the Republican party, but of the decent people of Massachusetts. The Republicans and their superb organization contributed mainly to the great success, but it could not have been completed without the assistance of Independents and a large number of conservative and high-minded Democrats, to whom decency and the good name of Massachusetts are far more important than a victory under such a leader as Governor Butler. The victory is due first, to the decent and intelligent voters; next, to Mr. Robinson, who has proved an incomparable standard-bearer; to Henry Cabot Cooge and his associates of the State Committee; to hundreds of men who, as local committees and individuals have given their time and utmost effort for days and weeks to bring out a full vote. It is cause for profound thank-giving rather than noisy exultation." without the assistance of Independents and

THE RESULT NO SURPRISE. The result, even in view of Mr. Robinson's large majority, can hardly be said to be a surprise to the intelligent of either party; for every thoughtful, observant man, not blinded by partisanship, it has been evident for several weeks that Butler must go, and the only question has been, to what depth Butler would be buried. It has been the most remarkable empaign ever fought in Massachusetts. Never before have the people of the old Bay State been so thoroughly the people of the old Bay State been so thoroughly aroused and so much in carnest to defend the honor of their State against the unparalleled abuse from one of her citizens, and that the chief executive, who ought to have been the first to defend her. It will be many years before so large a percentage of the registered vote of the State will be cast for any candidate for a State office. Butler has shown throughout the campaign a reckless disregard for truth, which has contributed not a little to his defeat. His misstatements—to put it no stronger language—have been so easily refused as to give color to the belief thas his mental vigor has not what his friends have supposed it to be.

to give color to the belief thas his mental vigor has not what his friends have supposed it to be.

Mr. Robinson made seventy-one speeches during the campaign, and after Butler took the stump he afforded Mr. Robinson all the material that was required for new speeches, which were really remarkable. The greater portion of his seventy-one addresses have been nearly new, and have borne only a slight resemblance to each other. His mental and physical vigor has been the subject of remaak in all parts of the State. He has travelled almost constantly throughout the State for about ix weeks; making two, three and even five speeches in a day; riding across country at all hours of the night, and manifesting few signs of fatigue.

BUTLER ADMITS HIS DEFEAT EARLY.

and cities by telephone. He was very quiet, and made little comment as the returns were read to him, only giving an occasional grant; but when Lynn was heard from he expressed surprise. The Butlerites had expected to increase their majority in Lynn by at least 500, as it is a Democratic stronghold, and their chagrin was unmistakable when they found that Butler had only gained about 100 over last year. Finally, along came the news that his majority had been reduced in other Democratic towns. He arose, and in a voice which betokened suppressed emotion said: "Well, then, Butler is beaten"; and leaving his friends he quietly strolled out of doors and walked about the grounds for a few minutes. When he returned he was calm, and was to the casual observer unaffected by the news of his defeat. made little comment as the returns were read

NO DISORDER AT THE POLLS. Wild rumors of probable disorder at the polls were circelated a day or two before the election by sensationalists, but a more orderly election never occurred in Boston and other cities of the Commonwealth. It was evidently the purpose of Butler's agents to carry Boston if possible by fraud, but the earnest and prompt action of the Republicans effectually killed some of their schemes. It is a signifitually killed some of their schemes. It is a significant fact, however, that the new ballot boxes which are well calculated to prevent dishonest voting, failed to work satisfactorily in the strong Democratic wards of Boston, and early in the day the old boxes were substituted. But with all their tricks Butler's majority was reduced more than one-half in this city. Last year Boston gave Butler 13,270 plurality; this year his plurality is reduced to about 6,511.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE RESULT. SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 6 .- The Republican tomorrow with say: "The people respond 'not guilty' to the infamous charges of Governor Butler. Let all the world take notice. Massachusetts has not had a loose, dishonest, extravagant or corrupt administration. Massachusetts is not yet given over to the domination of the ignorant, the foreign-born or the foreign-fathered. The old stock and the old spirit of Democracy, freedom, repugnance to one man domineering, nd devotion to popular education is still regnant and triumphant. This spirit animates still regnant and triumphant. This spirit animates many of those born on our soil of foreign parentage. Massachusetts cannot be permanently held in the control of any party which makes chaptrap appeals to the ignorance, the prejudice and the stapicity of the people. Attempts to excite feeling against the Republicans as the party of aristocracy, of blue blood and of capital, has miserably failed. Massachusetts believes more than ever in the capacity of a common-schooled and enlightened people to gover therefore. n themselves, to overthrow the demogogue and to indicate their own honor."

DEMOCRATS CONFESS TO DEFEAT.

THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITIES IN PHILADELPHIA STARTLE THE CHAIRMAN OF THE DEMOCRATIC

STATE COMMITTEE. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6.—The Republican majority in Philadelphia exceeds the most sanguine Republi-can calculations. It wipes out all of our estimated majority, but the country districts hold up to our figures, and until the western counties are heard from I do not concede the State to the opposition.

VIRGINIA.

A QUIET ELECTION AND A CLOSE VOTE.

INTIMIDATION AT THE POLLS-REPORTS FROM SEV-ERAL COUNTIES.

[RY TELEGRAPH TO THE TERRUNE.] RICHMOND, Nov. 6.—The election passed off quietly in this city to-day. There was no disturbance of any kind and an unprecedented vote was polled. Last night the excitement was so intense that it was thought that a row might occur at some of the precincts to-day, but such was not the case. Business was practically suspended and the streets were crowded all day.

Over two hundred extra policemen were on duty. They were badges and at one there were twelve at one of the precincts in Jackson Ward which is largely Readjuster. The Readjuster leaders claim that the presence of these officers in uch numbers was unnecessary, and had the effect of intimidating the colored voters.

The returns are coming in slowly Rockingham gives a readjuster majority of 500. Alexander City and County gives the Bourbons 704, making a gain of 82

When adding the Straightout and Funder votes together, returns from Stafford insures Duff Green's (Readjuster) election.

The Bourbons carry Charlotte, where the Read justers did not make a strong fight. Norfolk City givet 500 majority for the Readjusters' ticket. Hazlewood, Readjuster candidate for the House in Henrico, is elected by over 200 majority. From the returns now in the indications are that the Readjusters will carry Orange, formerly a Funder country. A special disputch from Danville says: "The election in Danville is a farce. The Bourtons polled very nearly their registered strength. The colored voters were thoroughly intimidated by the riot veters were theroughly intimidated by the riot voters were theroughly intimidated by the riot of Saturday. The threats made for weeks past, and by the fact that many men wers serving on the special force who were shooting at the defenceless colored people on Saturday. They did not dare trust themselves at the polls, and as a body could not be induced to vote.

North Danville and New-Design were in the same condition as Danville. The vote was all on one side, the colored men staying away from the polls. Danville gives 903 for Hart and 26 for Sims."

At Newport News, Dawson, Straighout, received only 12 votes. Norton, the Readjuster candidate for the Senate, gets a large majority. The vote is overwhelmingly Readjuster.

Returns from Caroline and Hanover are very meagre. Jones and Wickham are running close.

Richmond gives a majority of about 2,500 for the Bourbons. The Readjusters hold their own.

Portsmonth gives the Bourbons 30 majority, a gain of 162 for the Readjusters.

A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY CLAIMED.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—The Post has the following dispatch from Alexandria: "Returns come showing steady and large Democratic gains. The Demoerats gain members of the House in Culpepper, Fairfax, Princess Anne, Charlotte, and Henry Counties. We are expecting a popular Democratic majority of 18,000 and upward. There is a Democratic gain of 650 in Petersburg, Mahone's home." The Post has the following dispatch from Wythethe election returns from the principal towns ville: "Wythe County has sounded the death-knell of Mahoneism. The election here to-day goes Democratic by a glorious majority. Southwest Virginia is all right. Wythe County gave Cameron 161 majority over Daniel in 1881,"

MAHONE CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

CNALABMED BY DEMOCRATIC CLAIMS-THE LEADER ASSAULTED ON THE STREET.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] RICHMOND, Nov. 6.—All the dispatches up to this hour show large Democratic gains. The Democrats claim both Houses, and it is generally conceded that they have elected the Senate. Mahone, the Readjuster leader, is here, and says he is confident

Senator Mahone, while visiting the polls here to-day, was struck in the face by a white man numed Long. Mahone's son Butler attempted to shoot Long, but was prevented by the police. They disarmed him. The affair created much excitement

REGISTRATION BOOKS STOLEN. Washington, Nov. 6,-The Star says: "A dispatch received by Chairman Barbour, of the Virginia Democratic Committee, at his office, in Alexandria, this morning, informed him that the entire registration books of a precinct in Roanoke County had been stolen. The theft was not discovered until this morning. As the precinct usually gives about 200 Democratic majority, the local managers applied to Chairman Barbour for advice. He telegraphed back directing them to have every vote offered recorded, though, of course, no vote there polled will be legitimate. Mr. Barbour said that if anything of consequence depends upon that precinct a contest would be made, based upon the list of votes received. The election for State Senator of votes received. The election for State Senator in that district is admitted to be very close and doubtful. It is believed that very few votes will decide it one way or the other, and the control of the State Senate may depend upon the district. Both parties are specially exerting themselves to secure a majority of the Senate, and, this being the situation, the theft of the registration lists at a single polling place is important."

A SMALL NEGRO VOTE AT DANVILLE. DANVILLE, Nov. 6,-After the Mayor's proclams ion of yesterday, announcing the arrangements for preserving the peace and stating that those arrang ments were deemed complete and reliable, A. M. Wheeler, acting chairman of the Liberal Coalition party, and George C. Cabell, chairman of the Democrafic party of the city, requested the Mayor as an additional means of preserving the peace, to forbid any assembly of men of either party, white or colored, at public speaking, parade or procession till the 8th inst., and such orders were issued, A message from Governor Cameron was received by City Sc geant Wood, last night, stating that he (the G. vernor) had ordered troops to be sent here from Rich-mond; to which Captain Wood replied, after consalting with leading eithers, that it was not ne-cessary to send troops. This morning, however, the Kichmend Light Infantry Blues and a section of the Richmend Howitzer Company, with arms and equipments, came up from Richmend. A piece of artiflery was planted in Main-st, near the Arington Hotel. The Coulition Judges of Election having declined to serve others were appointed and the voting went on quietly. Very few negroes voted. At one ward where the negroes have a large regis-tered majority not more than a dozen votes had been given up to 2 p.m. sulting with leading citizens, that it was not in

THE VALLEY DISTRICTS PINCHANGED. HARRISHURG, Nov. 6.-The Xth and XHth Valley, and Senatorial districts remain unchanged. A Readjuster has been elected from the Xth, and a Demoerat from the XIIth. The VIIIth District is claimed by both parties. There has been over 300 Democratic gain, with six precinets to hear from at midnight. Private dispatches indicate a majority for the Democratis in the next Senate and House. The largest vote was polled to-day in this county that has ever been east since the war. There was no disturbance at any precinct.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN ALEXANDRIA. ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 6.-Alexandria gives a Demoeratic majority of 760. E. E. Meredith is elected to the Senate from this district by about 1,200 ma-A QUIET ELECTION IN FREDERICK-BURG.

FREDERICASRURG, Nov. 6,-There was a full vote here and no disorder. In Spottsylvania County Bailey (Dem.) is probably elected by a small majority over Green (Readjuster), and has increased majorities in Stafford County. Few returns from the county precincts will be received to-night. DEMOCRATIC GAIN IN NORFOLK COUNTY.

NORFGLE, Nov. 6 .- The election passed off quietly. Norfolk remains Coalition by 300 majorty. Pertsmouth is Democratic. The indication are that the Democrate will gain a legislator in Norfolk County.

ALBEMAREE CLAIMED BY THE DEMOCRATS. Charlottesymle, Nov. 6. - This place, at its two precincts, polls the largest vote that has been east for many years and gives Moon and Dunn (Dems.) 210 majority. The Democrats claim Albermarle County by a large majority. As far as heard from in the State there have been majorities for the Democrats.

A man from West Virginia was here to-day, giving the colored men incendiary circulars, inciting them to vote for the Readjusters and to resist the whites in a rioting manner. Attempts were made to arrest him, but he cluded the authorities. The leading Readjusters denounce his action.

TOWNS THAT SHOW DEMOCRATIC GAINS. RICHMOND, Nov. 6,-Official returns from eighteen precincts in this city and the estimated vote of the remaining three precincts, show a total vote of about 13,000, and an average majority of nearly 2,800 for the Democratic candidates for the Legislature. Manchester gives a Democratic majority of 440, a Democratic gain of 166 over the Massey and Wise vote of last year. A dispatch from Winchester says the Democrats have carried that place the first time in seven years, and that the Democratic majority in the county (Frederick) will be 1,000. The following cities also give Democratic majorities: Portsmouth, 35: Staunton, 321; Alexandria, 633; Fredericksburg, 291; Lynchburg, 406.

Charlotte and Halifax Counties, which in the last election were carried by the Coalitionists, are reported as having gone Democratic, the gains being 900 and 790 respectively. In the Chester-field Senatorral district the Democrats have made held Senatorial district the Democrats have made large gains, and expect to elect Warwick over Flanagan (Coalitionist). This would be a gain of one Senator. The most hotly contested Senatorial district in the State has also been car-ried by the Democrats. The contest was between General William C. Wickham, who was supported by the Democrats, and Colonel A. W. Jones, Readjuster. The Democrats expect to have a majority in the Senate and probably in the House of Delegates. The conditionists, on the other hand, claim that they will control the House by a small majority and the Senate by one or two.

NEW-JERSEY. DIXON PROBABLY DEFEATED.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 6.-The county majorities reported are: Sussex, 1,100 Democratic; Camden. 1,100 Republican ; Passaic, 300 Republican ; Middlesex, 800 Democratic; Warren, 1,800 Middlesex. 800 Democratic; Warren, 1.800 Democratic; Morris, 600 Republican; Essex, 2,200 Republican, Assemblymen elected; Mercer County, Rus and Applegate (Rep.); Warren County, Wildrick and Larison (Dem.); Salem County, Coombs (Rep.); Burlington County, Rockhill (Rep.); Middlesex County, Jernee and Carson (Dem.); Sussex County, Ross (Dem.) THE LEGISLATURE IN DOUBT.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] NEWARK, Nov. 6.-Returns from the lower part of the State are incomplete. Abbett (Dem.) has probably 3,000 majority, and the Legislature is in doubt, though probably Democratic. There is general gain over last year, but a loss from 1880.

CLOSE VOTE ON THE STATE TICKET.

GENERAL CARR RUNS AHEAD OF HIS ASSOCIATES-MAYNARD'S DEFEAT NOT UNLIKELY-THE REST OF THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET WINS BY SMALL MAJORITIES - A REPUBLICAN LEGISLATURE -CLEVELAND'S MAJORITY OF 193,000 NEARLY WIPED OUT. Returns indicate that the Democrats elected their State ticket, yesterday although the vote is close. General Carr, the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, ran ahead of his associates in a large number of the districts, and very possibly has been successful. The Republicans will have close to a two-thirds majority in the next Senate. The present Senate stands Democrats, 18; Republicans, 14. The Assembly, which stands Democrats 87, Republicans 41, is Republican, our present figures being Republicans, 77; Democrats, 51. The total vote polled is somewhat heavier than in 1881 when State offices were voted for, Mr. Jacobs is defeated for Senator in the IVth District, and Louis F. Payn in the XVth. The Republicans have regained the Oncida Senatorial district, electing Mr. Coggeshall. Chemung, which gave a Democratic majority in 1881, now goes Republican by about 1,000. Schenectady also changes from the Democratic to the Republican column, Rockland, which figures as a Democratic stronghold, elects a Republican Assemblyman. Maynard runs behind his ticket about 10,000 in this city. General Carr carried Kings County by about 1,000,

THE VOTE OF THE TOWNS

APPARENTLY A SMALL PLUBALITY FOR CARS. The returns received by THE TRIBUNE from the towns outside of New-York and Kings Counties show that the vote for Carr (Rep.) for Secretary of State this year making a slight gain over his vote in 1881, while Maynard (Dem.) has gained nearly 7 per cent over

Counties, give Carr (Rep.) 96,141 votes and Maynard (Deni.), 78,506. The same towns in 1881 voted as follows: Carr (Rep.), 95,153; Maynard (Deni.), 73,571. In other words, Carr, in 487 towns outside of New-York and Kings Counties. has 18,635 plurality this year, against 21,582 in 1881, a Democratic gain of 2,947. If the same ratio of gains and looses holds good in the remainder of the State, Carr's plurality outside of New-York and Kings Counties will be 36,346 against 51,037 in 1881. In New York County Maynard has about 37,000 plurality, while in Kings County Carr has about 1,000 plurality. These figures show that the result for Secretary is close, with the chances in favor of Carr by a small plurality. CARR LEADING HIS TICKET IN LIVINGSTON. DANVILLE, Nov. 6 .- Carr will get 1,700 majority the ticket here by 200. J. B. MOREY, [Chairman of Republican County Committee

The XXVIIth Senatorial District, comprising Chemung, Steuben and Allegany Counties, undoubtedly elects Fassett, (Rep.) by a total plurality of 3,000 to 4,000 over Farnham, (Dem.), Fassett's pluralities in the three counties ranging, respectively, about 6,000, 1,000 and 2,000. RESULTS IN THE CITY.

GOOD WORK BY REPUBLICANS. GAINS IN ASSEMBLYMEN AND ALDERMEN

-HESS DEFEATED. The vote in this city showed no startling results, but revealed the effects of quiet, earnest work by the Republicans to increase their representation in the State Senate, the Assembly and the Board of Aldermen. They carried the VIIIth Senate District by a very large majority and may have gained the XIth also. They have made a gain of at least three, and possibly five, in their representation in the Assembly, and will have at least eight members of the Board of Aldermen and probably nine. On the State ticket generally the Democrats have a majority of about 47,000 in the city, but Maynard, the Democratic candidate for Secretary of State, runs nearly 10,000 behind the others. Last year the Democratic majority in this city was 77.129. In 1881 it was 39,458. John Reilly, the Tammany candidate for register, is elected, though Jacob Hess polled & large vote. James O'Brien's vote was ridiculously small.

The Democratic candidates for Judges of the Supreme Court and the City Court were successful by large majorities.
